Enphase solar energy private Ltd. noida.

Jr. Engineer- operations

In ENPHASE i have worked on roofr project, and my job responsibility was to measure the roof (length of ridge, hip, eaves, rakes, valleys, wall and step flashings) through roofr software and mention roof pitch in the sketch and prepare a detailed report for proposal.

I do know about different types of roofs with different types of materials as well.

In enphase, we had a personal classroom where we can improve our skills so I have completed training in the basic overview of solar systems (including micro inverters, modules, attachments, and accessories, etc.).
